

Test arrangement for GE2262

- University requirement

The University requires students to join the designated Zoom (to be announced) meeting during the entire exam period with a camera device. You are also required to use a second device (such as a mobile phone) to record your hands and keyboard. You should keep the recorded video from the second device as additional evidence of your attempt to complete the assessment. Both devices will need to be turned on throughout the entire examination. Only the first device is required to connect to Zoom. Please refer to the document from University announcement on Feb 9, 2022 for more details. Students who fail to join the Zoom meeting or fail to set up the devices as required are considered an act of academic misconduct. Offended students may be reported to the College's Academic Conduct Committee for disciplinary hearings.

- We shall follow the above University requirements for GE2262 test on March 18, 2022 (week 9).
- Please have a look at the 2 device files.
- You are also advised to use software such as Panopto Recordings to record, but not broadcasting, your computer screen during the test. You should keep the recorded video safe if you need to use it to support your claim for interruptions during the test.
- If you encounter any technical problem during the test, you must record the incident and contact me immediately.
- The time allowed for the test is 90 minutes (5:05 pm – 6:35 pm, March 18, 2022).
- You will see the “Test Question Paper” in the Quizzes folder at 5:00 pm on March 18, 2022. You are expected to finish answering all multiple choice questions by 6:35 pm.
- The link will be closed by 6:40 pm. No submission or resubmission after 6:40 pm will be accepted.
- As mentioned in the course outline file, the test covers from Topic 1 “Introduction” to Topic 5 “Confidence Interval Estimation for the Population Mean”.
- The test will be open book. You must complete the test by yourself only. You are not allowed to receive help for answering the test questions from another party in any form. Misconduct will be dealt with following the University’s Academic Regulations.
- If you have any query about the test during the test period, you may contact me either at +852 34428566, at the designated Zoom meeting (to be announced), or by sending an email to msiris@cityu.edu.hk (with possible delayed response).
- Manage your time carefully. You are responsible for your time management.
